

Character Education

We will look at the importance of cleanliness.

We will look at fairness, in our own lives and the wider world.

We will look at friendliness and how we can be welcoming to others.

English

We will be reading and writing poetry.

We will be compiling fact files and sets of instructions.

We will be using 'bossy' verbs and adding time adverbials.

Religious Education Islam

We shall be learning about Islam and the importance of their faith. Also we will learn about the significance of peace, learn about the different vocabulary associated with Islam and learn about the prophet Muhammad (P.B.U.H)

Maths

We shall focus on the inverse operations of multiplication and division ($\times \div$)

We will look at halves of shape.

We learn how to halve and double a number.

We will work on multiplication and division problems.

Physical Education

In PE we will play games whilst learning ball control, hand-eye co-ordination, aiming and Temi teamwork
We will develop ball skills in all areas.

History/ Geography

We will be enriching our knowledge of Mary Anning and researching a current palaeontologist – Jack Horner.

We will be comparing and contrasting different places in the present and through time.

Computing

We will look at sequencing a set of instructions and the impact of changing them. We will make sensible predictions. We will explore the vocabulary of algorithms and coding.

Science

We will explore different life processes and how to sort animals into categories

We will investigate various animal and human habitats and the impact of humans on these.

We will study the diet of animals

Music

Music Express

In music we will be exploring patterns within music and developing skills of singing while performing actions and creating music associated with animals. We will look at pitch notation.

Art & Design Technology

We will design and make fossils using salt dough. We will look at the work of Andy Warhol. We will design and create a template and use it to print.